Outcome of the programme

- The students participated in all events enthusiastically. They showed their inner potential and got rid of stage fear.
- The youth fest week acted as a great platform for the students to display extravagant skills. The events also developed the artistic, creation, negotiation, communication and acting skills of students.
- The programmes also promoted team building and leadership qualities among the students. Besides, the events imbibed the qualities like sense of togetherness, tolerance, discipline, critical and analytical thinking.

- The programmes also made the students aware of Indian traditional culture and other's cultural beliefs.
- The students experienced a deep sense of satisfaction that their efforts had been recognised and rewarded.

Based on the marks secured by the students, Department of English lifted the championship Trophy with 81 points. The prizes were distributed during the valedictory function of the college union.
